

BISHOPSBOURNE

Bishopsbourne War Memorial

This unusual war memorial contains the name of just one officer. It is unclear if this memorial is a private family tribute or that of the whole parish (that may have lost only one man).

The Great War (1914 -1919)

This cross erected by Major Philip & Gertrude DURHAM, the parents of Captain Edward DURHAM, Rifle Brigade, grandson of Matthew & Fanny BELL Of Bourne Park, who fell at Fauquissart, France on 26th November 1914.

DURHAM E

Captain Edward DURHAM. Rifle Brigade. Died 26th November 1914.
