

BURMARSH

(ROMNEY MARSH)

Two Burmarsh casualties are commemorated on a screen erected in their memory in the parish church of All Saints. This screen divides the chancel from the nave.

A local man who is buried in the churchyard with a regulation CWGC headstone was not commemorated on the parish tribute - Private TF/241550 Roland Glover WRATTEN. Died 21st August 1917 aged 31 years. Born Deal. Enlisted Hythe, Kent. His name appears on the nearby Lympe war memorial.

The Great War 1914 -1919

BEALE S

Private L/6554 Simeon BEALE. 1st Battalion, The Buffs (East Kent Regiment). Died 25th October 1914. Born New Romney. Enlisted Lydd. Resided Burmarsh.

BUTCHER A.E

Lance Corporal G/1000 Albert Henry BUTCHER. 1st Battalion, The Buffs (East Kent Regiment). Died 15th September 1916. aged 24 years. Born Burmarsh. Enlisted Dover. Resided Burmarsh.

